Agency or independent escorts?

Many of our regular clients have in the past arranging a date with an independent escort because their fees are often cheaper. However on many occasions if their date did turn up they were not the girl pictured on the profile they saw, and a few were not as trustworthy as they should have been. Therefore they ended up paying for something they did not order and on the odd occasion loosing a lot more. You should always remember when you find a reliable agency, not only do you get a choice of many beautiful women you have source of entertainment for many years to come.

Finally, all agencies work extremely hard to cultivate relationships, and most offer VIP discount programs to their regular clients, so as a result you will end up having a lot more pleasure safe in the knowledge you are getting what you asked for and saving a lot of money.

How can I contact you?

At Allure Models you can contact us in many ways we have our FREE web chat, you can call us by phone, Email us or simply use our contact form.

Click here for more details.

How far in advance do I need to book?

Preferably the more notice we have the greater the chance you have of getting the model you desire, however you can book on the day itself, on most occasions we can get a model with you within 1 hour.

Often it can take less time than this, on occasions it may take a little longer due to traffic or weather, we end eavour to make sure nobody waits unnecessarily.

The minimum booking is for one hour after that you can hire one of models for as long as you want.

Do you offer in-call services?

No, our models only offer out-call services they are more than willing to travel to you at your home or hotel. We only except booking at hotels of a reasonable standard. You will also be required to provide your full name and address or hotel details a contact number and the preferred date of your liaison.

Can I rely on the discretion of Allure Models Agency?

Totally! the personal information past on to us is for internal use only and will never be passed on to any third party or any promotional services.

Is the discretion of the Escort Model assured?

Most definitely yes we guarantee the discretion and trustworthiness of all our models, they would not be on our books if we did not!

This also applies to you the client as our models expect discretion to be reciprocated

What payment methods does the agency accept?

You can pay cash, with a credit card or normal bank transfer. If you choose to pay through a bank transfer, we need a payment verification from your bank. We only except bank transfers on extended appointments which are booked in advance. We are sorry can not accept personal or business cheques.

Can I pay using another currency?

Yes, but only by prior arrangement. Our preferred choice is the Euro and British Sterling, however we will always try our best to accept all other major currencies i.e Dollars etc. The exchange rate calculation will be at the discretion of the admin arranging your date "please note" a 10% surcharge is also added for exchange commission.

What are your models rates?

All our models rates are displayed on their profile page, the price shown is in Euros and for a 1 hour appointment.

Additional travel expenses may accrue, however these will be discussed with you prior to the confirmation of your date.

Are the models fees negotiable?

Sorry no they are not negotiable. The only circumstances under which negotiation might take place is if you were taking one or more of our escorts out for an extended period. In such a situation we would expect to discuss the fee with you.

When do travel expenses arise?

We have allowed a travel time of around 1 hour within the models rates, If you would like to meet one of our models outside of her home city travel expenses will arise. These are subject to the distance and the means of transport required.

If the use of an airline is required the purchase of a round trip ticket will be decided at the time of your appointment.

Are your models available for weekend breaks, long term business trips or weeklong holidays?

As with most women our girls love to travel, all they ask for is a bit of notice to give them time to pack. We strongly recommend a pre trip drink just to get to know each other before you depart.

Can I book more than one girl at a time?

Yes of course, many of the girls are bi-sexual and very happy to work together. Not all of our escort girls offer this service, but those that do have a note to that effect on their profile page. There is no limit to how many models you can book at the same time.

Can my partner and I see one of your models together?

Yes, however this will incur a small additional charge, some but not all of our models enjoy meeting couples as well as singles, not all of our models are so open minded, so please inform us when you are booking that you wish to include a third party. Failure to disclose this information could result in disappointment.

Am I breaking any laws, is everything about my date legal?

You are definitely not breaking any laws our models are simply accepting payment in return for spending their time with you. We are simply introducing two individuals, anything else that goes on during a date is a private matter between consenting adults, there is nothing at all wrong with paying to spend time with a beautiful lady, its nothing different to booking a model for a shoot or a cleaner
All our Models are over the legal age and have provided us with documented proof of their age and nationality.

What if I have a special request?

You may either speak to one of our helpful office staff we are quite happy to pass on our client's requests to our girls we might be able to help you on the spot. Alternatively you may wish speak to your chosen model herself we're not able to enter into negotiation about the personal services you may receive during your date. We are, however, quite content to pass on special requests such as the type of clothes you wish her to wear, if you prefer high heels or thigh length boots etc.

I can not find the answer to my question!

Thats easy just put your question down on a Email or on our contact form and we will do our best to answer your question we are committed to the highest possible level of customer service.

A few golden rules to make your date perfect.

Nice manners and good grooming are essential thats what you expect from your date.
Keep conversation light and cheery, your date does not wish to here about the demise of pet mouse.
Treat your date with respect and she will treat you like the gentleman you are.
Never ask personal questions about your dates private life, as the saying goes ask no questions tell no lies.
Finally relax and enjoy a very special date.
